

Official Biography

Shepherdess Connie Brown has for many years pressed forward, against all odds, to share her life and songs with the world. She is an expositor, illuminator, prophetic intercessor, and deliverance specialist. Shepherdess holds many certifications, awards including an FCC license, a BA degree in Biblical Studies from the North Carolina School of Theology and she has earned her Bachelor of science degree from Central Christian College of Kansas in Psychology.

Apostle Huie Rogers (Shepherdess' spiritual father), gave Shepherdess the first opportunity to sing at the Greater Bibleway Temple in Brooklyn, NY. Since then she has sung and declared God's precious Word before His people on countless stages and platforms for over thirty years. Shepherdess has also shared the platform with the likes of Bishop Michael Rogers of Tidewater, VA, as Psalmist, Bishop Jeffery White of NYC (and GTS RECORDS with whom she toured Japan), Bishop Hezekiah Walker, Monique Walker-Davenport; participated in "Barbados Gospel Fest"(CEO is Adrain Acard). She has performed for Bobby Jones Gospel and was a guest speaker at the City of Refuge, where Bishop Noel Jones is Pastor

Shepherdess helped her husband, the late Bishop H. L. Brown establish churches and was a blessing as a wife and intercessor for many years. She has been working relentlessly in God's Kingdom, instrumental in turning countless souls to Jesus Christ and "New Life". One of her many sought-after, self-quotes is, 'I may be on my way home, but I won't go quietly, it's time to make some noise!'

Now to God be the Glory - Let His anointing tell the rest of the story...Amen!
